

2019 Historic Preservation Award Nominations Now Open

- Distinguished Service Award
- Ron Swayze Award
- Idella Childs Award

DEADLINE MARCH 29, 2019

The Alabama Historical Commission and the Black Heritage Council are seeking nominations for the 2019 Historic Preservation Awards. Recipients will be honored during the Alabama Preservation Conference, held in conjunction with the Alabama Historical Association Annual meeting April 25-27, 2019 at the Embassy Suites in Tuscaloosa.

Nominations are being accepted in the following categories:

Distinguished Service Award: Since 1969, the Alabama Historical Commission has celebrated achievements in preservation by presenting the Distinguished Service Award to individuals and groups whose contributions demonstrate excellence in historic preservation.

Roy Swayze Award: This award recognizes outstanding achievement by a private owner in the restoration of a major Alabama landmark.

Idella Childs Award: Each year the Black Heritage Council recognizes outstanding preservation projects that highlight Alabama's African-American history and culture. The late Idella Childs established an enviable record as a preservationist of Alabama's black landmarks.
